

Life Insurance Beneficiary— Support when they need it most

Coping with the loss of a loved one can be stressful and upsetting. Making funeral arrangements, notifying family and friends, and sorting through paperwork are some tasks that may feel overwhelming to many people. But we are here to help!

➔ Start here

At the Prudential Insurance Company of America (Prudential) we do more than help make the life insurance claims process as simple as possible for your beneficiaries.

With every Prudential life insurance policy, we make a commitment to support you and your beneficiaries with services that help get them through this difficult time.

We're here for you...and for them

To find their way after a loss, your beneficiaries may require support and guidance. Through our online Beneficiary Resource Center your beneficiaries can get help:

- Filling a claim, including reaching out to the employer to initiate the claim if needed

- Creating an action plan, from funeral plans to estate details
- Make a list of key tasks for the days and months after a loved one passes
- Get financial and legal advice
- Find emotional support
